Announcing the 2010 Annual Gala Celebration November 13, 2010

We at the Brookline High School 21st Century Fund have begun planning our Annual Gala to celebrate another successful year of important innovations in public education at Brookline High. This year, we will travel through time and transform the Schluntz gym into the Bee's Knees Speakeasy on November 13, 2010. This year we are honoring Brookline's beloved Chobee Hoy, a lifelong environmentalist, community activist and volunteer.

We will also be celebrating the achievement of BHS teacher Robert Grant, who co-leads one of the 21st Century Fund's signature programs, Teacher Mentoring Teachers, enabling BHS to recruit and retain world-class faculty through comprehensive mentoring.

To help honor Chobee and support the 21st Century Fund, we invite you to attend the Gala or place an ad in this year's Gala Tribute Book. Click here to learn more about the Gala and purchase tickets and Tribute Book ads.

2010-2011 BHS Academic Planners

Help your students keep their homework and schedules organized this year. Created for our Tutorial Program, the BHS 21st Century Fund is again underwriting this very popular homework planner so that students can purchase a nifty BHS-specific planner for only $5. They will be on sale the first week of school in the Atrium from 7:30am-8:30am or any time during the school day in the 21st Century Fund office in room 168B until supplies run out.

BHS Teacher Receives 21st Century Fund Teacher of the Year Award

BHS Career and Technology Education Chair Arnie Marcus was presented with the 21st Century Fund 2010 Award for Teaching Excellence at the PTO Teacher Appreciation Luncheon on Monday, June 21, 2010. Arnie has been a mentor to countless teachers and students at BHS. Julie Joyal Mowschenson, 21st Century Fund co-chair and BHS teacher, presented Arnie with this award and a $1,000 stipend.
